CATALOGUES ON REQUEST

SALES CONDUCTED BY MR. F. A. CHAPMAN AND MR. A. N. BADE

INTRODUCTION

AS it has become a custom with me to add a few lines of introduction to the catalogue, I wish to say that this, my ninth sale of early American furniture held at the Anderson Galleries, is the equal in quality and variety to any of my previous sales, and the pieces that required repairing have been attended to with the same care as I have taken with my former sales. Some of the outstanding items of this collection are a mahogany block-front desk with cabinet top, generally attributed to the Newport, Rhode Island school; an inlaid curly maple secretary-cabinet with tambour front, originating from Vermont; a mahogany lyre sofa table attributed to Duncan Phyfe; a fine pie-crust table; and a curly maple Sheraton small sideboard which is rarely found in this wood. There is also a plentiful variety of hooded and straight top highboys, lowboys, bureaus in maple, cherry and mahogany, Chippendale, Hepplewhite and Sheraton chairs, dining and occasional tables, cabinets and desks, and a choice group of pine dressers, cupboards and tavern tables. Three interesting items are the iron firebacks of the type that Baron Steigel is known to have had cast at his works in Philadelphia; they illustrate scenes from the Bible and elsewhere and bear inscriptions in Pennsylvania German, and are typical productions of the Quaker city of the eighteenth century. To conclude I wish to state, as I have done in all my previous sales, that I guarantee the attributions which I have given to each item to be correct. Also I shall be glad to execute minor repairs for my New York customers.
